J. PROBATION CONDITIONS

The following probation conditions are imposed:

GENERAL CONDITIONS OF PROBATION

- ☒ Report to the Department of Corrections Probation Office on the next business day following the date of sentencing, or, if time is to be served prior to probation, report to the Department of Corrections Probation Office on the next business day following release from an institution.
- ☒ Report in person between the first day and the tenth day of each month, or as otherwise directed, to your assigned office of the Department of Corrections. Complete in full a written report when your probation officer is out of the office to ensure credit for that visit. You may not report by mail unless you secure prior permission to do so from your probation officer.
- ☒ Secure the prior written permission of a probation officer of the Department of Corrections before changing employment or residence or leaving the region of residence to which assigned.
- ☒ Make a reasonable effort to secure and maintain steady employment. If you become unemployed, notify a probation officer of the Department of Corrections as soon as possible. Sec Special Condition #10
- ☒ At no time have under your control a concealed weapon, a firearm, or a switchblade or gravity knife.
- ☒ Do not knowingly associate with a person who is on probation or parole or a person who has a record of a felony conviction unless prior written permission to do so has been granted by a probation officer of the Department of Corrections.
- ☒ Do not consume intoxicating liquor in excess of 0.08 grams per 210 liters of breath. Submit to breath analysis at the direction of a probation officer of the Department of Corrections.
- ☒ Make a reasonable effort to support your legal dependents.
- ☒ Obey all federal, state, and local laws and ordinances.
- ☒ Comply with all direct court orders listed above by the deadlines stated.
- ☒ Report all purchases, sales, and trades of motor vehicles belonging to you, together with current motor vehicle license numbers for those vehicles, to your probation officer.
- ☒ If this conviction is for a sex offense as defined in AS 12.63.100, submit to periodic polygraph examinations as directed by a probation officer of the Department of Corrections. AS 12.55.100(e).
- ☒ Abide by any special instructions given by the court or any of its duly authorized officers, including probation officers of the Department of Corrections.

1. You shall continue active participation and attendance in Alaska Department of Corrections' approved sex offender treatment provider as recommended by such provider. Such counseling/treatment, at the direction and discretion of the provider, may include regular periodic polygraph examinations, physiological and/or psychological testing as well as other methods of ongoing assessment.
2. You shall obtain prior permission of the probation officer before voluntarily discontinuing counseling/treatment. If released, removed or terminated from treatment (temporarily or permanently) for any reason, you shall notify the probation officer on the next working day.
3. You shall sign releases of information to authorize the exchange of verbal and written information between the assessment provider, treatment provider, polygraph examiner and Alaska Department of Corrections' staff members. Additionally, during the course of supervision and treatment, you shall authorize the exchange of information with other individuals who are identified by the probation officer as having an essential role in supervision and treatment in the community, including, but not limited to medical/mental health/psychiatric providers, substance abuse treatment providers, physiological assessment technicians, and clinicians providing treatment to victims and/or family members.
4. You shall, if decided appropriate by your probation officer and sex offender treatment provider, enter and successfully complete any other Department-approved programs, including but not limited to substance abuse treatment and domestic violence programming. You shall sign releases of information to enable other programs to exchange verbal and written information with the probation officer and sex offender treatment provider. You shall, if determined necessary by an appropriate mental health or substance abuse professional, enroll in a residential mental health or substance abuse program for a length of time determined necessary by the appropriate professionals. You shall also comply with use of medications prescribed as part of the treatment program.

5. You shall submit to the collection of a buccal swab and taking of fingerprints for the purpose of creating a DNA identification system pursuant to AS 44.41.025 and AS 44.41.035.
6. You shall not drive unless properly licensed and insured and provide proof of insurance to the Probation Officer.
7. You shall not use, possess, handle, purchase, give or administer any controlled substance, including marijuana, without a valid prescription. A medical marijuana card is not a valid prescription. You shall not have on your person, in your residence or vehicle or any vehicle under your control, any drugs or paraphernalia normally associated with the illicit use of drugs. You shall submit to any testing upon request or at the direction of a probation officer. You shall submit to a search of your person, personal property, residence, vehicle or any vehicle over which you have control, for the presence of illicit drugs or drug paraphernalia.
8. You shall not possess, apply for, or obtain a medical marijuana card or act as a caregiver while under supervision.
9. You shall not use, possess, purchase, consume or ingest any product, preparation, mixture, or substance, nor possess any device intended to conceal alcohol or controlled substance use or to subvert a bodily fluid testing process. You shall submit a sufficient sample of your bodily fluids for testing in a timely manner and according to the direction of a Probation Officer. You shall submit to a search of your person, personal property, residence, vehicle or any vehicle under which you have control, for the aforementioned items.
10. You shall obtain and maintain verifiable full-time employment or provision of full-time child care (to your biological children only), unless enrolled in a fulltime educational program or a residential treatment program approved by the probation officer with proof of participation to be provided to the supervising probation officer. You shall provide proof of income when requested by the probation officer.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF PROBATION

11. You shall have no contact with the victim(s) of your crimes. The prohibited contact includes but is not limited to: in-person contact, written correspondence, taped conversations, electronic contact (internet or e-mail), telephonic contact, stalking, harassment and communication of any nature through a third party, without the prior written permission of the probation officer and the treatment provider. You shall not enter onto the premises, travel past, or loiter near the victim's residence, place of employment, or other places frequented by the victim(s).

12. If directed by the treatment provider, you shall not at any time possess, have on your person, in your residence, or in your vehicle any sexually explicit material prohibited at the direction of the provider (as specified by the provider), which may include but is not limited to child erotica, sexually graphic animé, adult and/or child pornography, or chat logs contained in books, movies, videos, magazines, printed matter, computer disks or files, any encryption devices or computer mechanisms or other electronic devices that can hold this type of visual or audio material). You shall submit to a search of your person, personal property, residence, vehicle or any vehicle under which you have control, for the aforementioned items.

13. If directed by the treatment provider, you shall not enter any establishment whose primary business is the sale of sexually explicit material (as dictated by the provider) and shall not enter any establishment where nude dancing or posing is part of the entertainment. This includes, but is not limited to strip clubs, massage parlors, adult book stores, adult video stores, phone services and Internet sites. You shall not engage in the service of an escort service.

14. If directed by the treatment provider to not possess or access sexually explicit material (as dictated by the provider), you shall submit to a search of your residence, any vehicle under your control, personal computer and/or any item which has internet connectivity (i.e., X-Box, cell phone, palm pilots, Blackberries) at the direction of a probation officer for the presence of sexually explicit material. You shall provide the probation officer any and all passwords used for such devices.

NOTICE TO DEFENDANT

You are advised that according to the law, the court may at any time revoke your probation for cause or modify the terms or conditions of your probation. You are subject to arrest by a probation officer with or without a warrant if the officer has cause to believe that you have violated a condition of your probation. You are further advised that it is your responsibility to make your probation officer aware of your adherence to all conditions of probation set forth above.

Sentence Appeal. If you are ordered to serve more than two years in jail for a felony offense or 120 days for a misdemeanor offense, you may appeal the sentence to the court of appeals on the ground that it is excessive. (However, you may not appeal the sentence as excessive if it was imposed in accordance with a plea agreement that provided for a specific sentence or a sentence equal to or less than a specified maximum sentence. If the sentence was imposed in accordance with a plea agreement that provided for a minimum sentence, you may appeal as excessive only the part of the sentence that is longer than the minimum sentence by more than two years for a felony offense or 120 days for a misdemeanor offense.) Your appeal must be filed within 30 days of the date of distribution stated below. If you are sentenced to serve two years or less in jail for a felony offense or 120 days or less for a misdemeanor offense, you may seek review of your sentence by filing a petition for review in the supreme court. To do this, you must file a notice of intent to file a petition for sentence review within 10 days of the date of distribution stated below. See Appellate Rules 215 and 403(h) for more information on time limits, procedures and possible consequences of seeking review of your sentence.

- ☐ REGISTRATION REQUIREMENT. Because you have been convicted of one of the offenses listed in AS 12.63.100, you must register as described in the attached form (CR-471, Sex Offender and Child Kidnapper Registration Requirements).
